

Working in a weight-loss center by day and a racquetball club by night, Susan Hunter enjoys her life, the sport, and her friends. But now she has life-changing decisions to make. Should she accept the new position with Slimmers Weight Loss? Should she give in and move her relationship with Mick to the next level? When Darby has business in New York City, Susan jumps at the chance to tag along, intending to indulge in a weekend of shopping. It doesn't take long before she realizes she's being followed in The Big Apple. And what does the man following her have to do with Darby's new client? It becomes a matter of life-and-death when the man shows up in Carbide City demanding something Susan lost in New York. Humorous, sometimes ominous, Big Apple Hunter is entertaining and perfect for easy breezy reading.
